JUST SIT RIGHT BACK

For nearly sixty years, Gilligan's Island has been delighting audiences of all ages. Widely regarded as one of the most successful shows of the Golden Age of Television, it has been on the air non-stop and broadcast in more than thirty languages. Gilligan's Island: The Movie is a faithful retelling of the original series and an entertaining continuation of the world's longest three hour tour.

Based on the characters from the TV show Gilligan's Island created by Sherwood Schwartz

LOGLINE

With their infamous three hour tour having turned into a five year exile from civilization, the passengers and crew of the S.S. Minnow confuse a pair of terrorists on a mission to attack the United States as a rescue attempt.

SYNOPSIS

In their fifth year on the island, the castaways of the S.S. Minnow shipwreck learn that documentary film crews are scouring the ocean in an attempt to find out what happened the day the Minnow disappeared. At the same time, a pair of terrorists arrive on the island, ready to unfold a master plan that would wreak havoc on the U.S.

Mistaking the terrorists for one of the film crews, Gilligan introduces the duo to his island mates, who believe they are finally being rescued. But when their guests' true intentions are revealed, the Minnow survivors launch a plan of their own to stop the attack – a task that ultimately depends on Gilligan to succeed. Gulp!

RON L. PALMER

Screenwriter

Ron began watching Gilligan's island in first grade, rushing home from school every day to catch the reruns in syndication. By the time the castaways were finally rescued, he had likely seen each episode a dozen times.

Now all grown up and professional, Ron has enjoyed a lengthy journalism career, one which eventually brought him to Los Angeles. He has overseen the creation of several independent film projects and is the co-creator of the comedic web series "Ask Dr. Juli," which has DOZENS of views!

Ron has a keen wit, a strong understanding of comedy and apparently no qualms with talking about himself in the third person. His sense of humor was formed watching those Gilligan's Island reruns and his screenplay pays sacred homage to the source material.
